Meeting Objective: As we approach the critical year of 2025, this is a pivotal moment for the Local Government Advisory Committee (LGAC) to lean into our mission of 'sharing the views and insights of local elected officials with state and federal decision makers.' During the public feedback period for the draft Beyond 2025 Steering Committee report, LGAC will convene a broad group of local officials to discuss the draft report and begin to compile comments and recommendations related to the potential implications of the report for local governments.

Thursday July 11, 2024

11:00 am      Call to Order: Greetings and Introductions

11:00 am - 4:30 pm Local Government Forum: Looking Beyond 2025

Meeting Goals:

- Convene a broad group of local officials to discuss the draft Beyond 2025 Steering Committee report.
- Collect feedback to inform the Local Government Advisory Committee (LGAC) recommendations related to the draft Beyond 2025 Steering Committee report.

The Local Government Advisory Committee (LGAC)'s mission is to share the views and insights of local elected officials with state and federal decision-makers. The Local Government Forum is an annual problem solving meeting hosted by LGAC in collaboration with the Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay and the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation. This year's forum will convene a broad group of local elected officials, appointed officials, senior staff, and local government association staff from around the watershed to discuss the draft Beyond 2025 Steering Committee report and its implications for local governments. Through facilitated discussions, the forum will collect feedback to inform LGAC's recommendations to the Chesapeake Bay Program leadership for their consideration related to the future of the watershed restoration effort.
