

Brandon Reeves- Executive Director, VA Cattlemen's Association

Brandon is the Executive Director of Virginia Cattlemen's Association and Managing Agent of Cattlemen's Insurance Agency. He grew up on a commercial cow/calf and backgrounding operation in Augusta County, Virginia where he still farms with his family today. Brandon attended college at Texas Tech University and law school at Washington & Lee School of Law. Prior to working at Virginia Cattlemen's, he served as a law clerk on the House Agriculture Committee for Chairman Michael Conaway (R-TX) during the 2018 Farm Bill Conference and worked as the Director of Government Affairs for the U.S. Beet Sugar Association.