

Senator Sara Love, Chair
Chesapeake Bay Commission

Sara Love was sworn in as the Senator for District 16 on June 13, 2024. She serves on the Judicial Proceedings Committee. Senate President Bill Ferguson re-appointed her to the Chesapeake Bay Commission, where she was recently elected as Chair. As a Delegate, she served on the Commission for 5 years.

Sara was first elected to the Maryland House of Delegates in November 2018. She served on the Environment & Transportation Committee, and two of its subcommittees, Motor Vehicles & Transportation, which she chaired, and Environment. During her last four years as a Delegate, she chaired the Montgomery County House Delegation Land Use, Transportation and Public Safety Committee. In addition to the Chesapeake Bay Commission, Sara served on the Joint Committee on the Chesapeake and Atlantic Coastal Bays Critical Area and the Zero-Emission and Electric Vehicle Infrastructure Council.

Prior to serving in the Maryland General Assembly, Sara was the Public Policy Director for the ACLU of Maryland, where she led their policy and legislative work. During that time, she worked on many issues including reproductive rights, racial justice, public funding for public schools, policing reform, criminal justice reform, saner drug policies, technology and privacy, the First Amendment, open government, and voting rights.

Before working for the ACLU, Sara served as the General Counsel and Legal Director of NARAL Pro-Choice America where she worked on federal reproductive rights policy and led a staff to support affiliates across the country working on state policy. She also spent several years out of the workforce, raising her two children, and volunteering in her community.

Sara graduated from Princeton University and Northwestern University School of Law.
